2025 – CATELOGUE

Introduction

Sufi International is a distinguished Indian manufacturer and exporter specializing in premium equestrian tack and horse accessories, rooted in the rich leather craftsmanship traditions of Kanpur, Uttar Pradesh—India's renowned saddlery hub. Established with a commitment to blending timeless Western-inspired designs with modern functionality, the company crafts high-quality products such as hand-tooled headstalls, bridles, halters, felt saddle pads, and even stylish dog collars and harnesses. Using premium full-grain leather sourced from top global suppliers and local artisans, Sufi International ensures durability, comfort, and aesthetic appeal for riders, horse owners, and pet enthusiasts worldwide.

With a focus on customization, ethical production, and competitive pricing, Sufi International serves international markets across Europe, the US, and the Middle East, delivering limited-stock items that capture the spirit of Western equestrian culture. Whether for trail riding, ranch work, or everyday grooming, their handcrafted gear stands as a testament to quality and innovation, empowering equestrians to ride with confidence and style. As a family-run enterprise, Sufi International continues to expand its global footprint, one meticulously tooled piece at a time.
